

Cathedral Choir History

- 1977 - Hartford moved to its current location. The Senior Choir was renamed the Cathedral Choir. Beverly Williams was Director and Minister of Music.
- 1982 – Dr. Mildred Hankins Dobey accepted the position of Minister of Music and Director of the Cathedral Choir.
- 1986 – The Cathedral Choir, under the direction of Dr. Mildred Hankins Dobey, performed at Orchestra Hall with the Dave Brubeck Trio, an original work “The Gates of Justice” composed by Dave Brubeck.
- Dr. James Abbington led the Cathedral Choir in Performances of Bach, Mozart, Haydn and the Great Masters.
- Everett Williams directed the Cathedral Choir in a concert for the Gospel Music Workshop of America.
- The Cathedral Choir annually performs “The Seven Last Words of Christ” and the “Messiah”.
- JoyAnne Richardson and Delores Ivory Davis, current interim director, continues these Classic Traditions.